

Crime scene:

Frank E. Stein, a 35 year old male, 6ft 1inch, fit Caucasian man, was found dead in the forest on August 10th, 2018 at approximately 12:01 am. He had a compound fracture, from being hit in the head with a big rock. The rock was found lying 10 meters from the victim, with blood on it. The victim also had a broken nose, and blood in his hair. On the trail were two different footprints, one was a size 12, and the other a size 10. The size 10 shoe print was very distinctive with a puma logo in center of shoe print. Beside the victim a clump of hair was found, as he had ripped it from the offenders head. Only Frank's fingerprints were discovered at the crime scene.

Evidence collected

Evidence	Type	Circumstance/direct
Hair clump	Blonde, B	circumstance
Bloody rock	Big rock, -AB	circumstance
Shoe print	Size 10, Pumas	circumstance

Hair - doesn't have a "type"

The Backgrounds of suspects

Suspect I: Hernando Ivan Virella. He is 5'9 and has blonde hair. He works at taco bell 5 days a week.

Where Frank frequently goes to eat; they have become good acquaintance over the years. Hernando has immigrated from Mexico. He has recently bought a pair of puma shoes from a local thrift store on August 11th. He later discovers his new shoe has a spot of blood on them. Once after work Hernando and his wife went to the bar in which he ran into Frank. They both got drunk and Frank ended up sleeping with Hernando's wife. Blood type -AB

Suspect 2: Julie I. Stein. is Frank's wife. She has blonde hair, green eyes, and has a very petite figure. Julie likes to wear expensive heels. Frank and Julie weren't very close as a couple. They met in collage. She thought Frank was rude but, she stayed as his wife for his money. Blood type -O

Suspect 3: Phillip Mc. Up. He has brown hair, black eyes, and a family. He owns an old pair of pumas and wears them a lot. Him and Frank used to be good friends and liked to go out drinking, but one day Frank ran over his dog and now they don't talk. Their wife's also say that when they go drinking they tend to argue. Blood type AB.

Suspect 4: Moe Stache. He is a short, stalky man, dies his hair grey, and wears brogues. Moe goes to the barber weekly to get his mustache done and is a sales executive. Moe wants to partner up with Frank, but he says no because then Frank will lose some money. Blood type AB

Suspect 5: Cole Pratt. He has blonde hair, 6' 1" and owns 2 pairs of puma shoes. But on August 11th he had given an old pair to the local thrift shop, he is also an alcoholic and smokes. Frank was Cole's bully in high school, and he still lives with his mom. Cole was recently arrested for streaking in the park. -AB

Testimony's of suspects

Suspect 1: Hernando Ivan Virella: He was leaving Taco Bell at 12am from a late night shift.

Suspect 2: Julie I. Stein: Was at home sleeping by 9pm

Suspect 3: Phillip Mc. Up: He was heading home from the bar by 11.

Suspect 4: Moe Stache. He was at the office until 1:00 where it showed when he punched out at the time station. Then went home and was there by 1:30.

Suspect 5: Cole Pratt: he was leaving a different bar at 10:00

Who killed Frank?

Hernando
